

We Offer Home Neurofeedback

Want to do your neurofeedback training in your own home, while still getting the personal attention of a neurofeedback clinician?

We offer Myndlift, which allows you to get the benefits of personalized neurofeedback from the comfort of your own home.

Using a convenient, wireless headset and tablet or phone, your brain can learn to regulate itself better, simply by playing a game or watching a video.

Your clinician will personally set up and monitor your home training in order to help you attain your goals.
